

Being Mortal – and What Matters in the End

Monday, March 9th

5:30 pm - 7:30 pm

If you thought you were dying,
what would matter most?

Based on the best-selling book by Atul Gawande, MD, the PBS FRONTLINE film Being Mortal explores the hopes of patients and families facing terminal illness and their relationships with the physicians who treat them. When Dr. Gawande's own father gets cancer, his search for answers about how to best care for the dying becomes a personal quest.

BEING MORTAL

5:30 pm - Doors open; 6:00 pm - Film; 7:00 pm - Discussion

JOIN US at the Alamo Drafthouse Cinema Lakeline for a free screening, dinner, and discussion with physicians and nurses about the PBS FRONTLINE film Being Mortal.

Continuing education credit of 1.5 hours are available for nurses and social workers.

See this moving documentary, join the conversation, and explore what matters to you.

Alamo Drafthouse Cinema Lakeline
14028 North US 183, Building F, Austin 78717

Limited seating available
email sprice@hospiceaustin.org

The event is a program of The GIFT Project. The GIFT Project is an initiative of Hospice Austin to encourage advance care planning prior to a health care crisis. Nurses and social workers may receive 1.5 hours of continuing education credit. Hospice Austin is an approved provider of continuing nursing education by the Texas Nurses Association – Approver, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation (Provider number 16-296070-A).

Please contact Shirley Price to reserve your spot: sprice@hospiceaustin.org or call 512-342-4789